Peter Adams I am a third generation Busselton resident who loves our city and all it has to offer, 63 years of age so been around long enough to see Busselton grow from a sleepy coastal town to a thriving city.

I am passionate about our region and think I will have plenty to offer if I become a councillor. I obviously have my own views on where I would like the city to head but am certainly open to good debate and honest conversation, if it's good for Busselton I will be happy!!!

I am very approachable and always up for robust discussions, we don't need to agree on everything as long as we know each others views.

Fisherman, pigeon racer (yes a bit different) and very proud parent and poppy. If you ever have questions will certainly make myself available to hopefully answer them in a respectful manner.
