Organic Waste

Over 20% of Australia's waste is organic, mostly from households.

In landfill it creates harmful greenhouse gases — could you compost instead?
Check out local composting and worm farming workshops at Reconnect to Nature (reconnecttonature.com.au).

Or take food scraps to your local Community Garden for their compost bins and worm farms.

No ripped or stained clothes. Repurpose at home as dish cloths or cleaning rags. Alternatively, recycle through Upparel. Please don't overfill donation bins.
