Explanations

1.	The South West Design Review Panel act in an advisory role and therefore provides advice only. It is not to be implied that the advice provided necessarily means that development approval has or will be granted.
2.	On receipt of a formal development application, the advice provided by the Panel will be conveyed to the decision-maker and taken into consideration during the assessment.
3.	Prior to presenting your proposal to the South West Design Review Panel, it is recommended that you familiarise yourself with the 'Proponents Guide for Presenting to the South West Design Review Panel' which is available to view on the City's Website.
