Appeal Reasons That Will Generally Not Be Accepted

The circumstances where a request for review/appeal will generally not be considered, include, but not limited to the following explanations:

- The driver did not realise the time.
- The driver's doctor's appointment ran over time.
- The driver's hairdresser did not finish on time
- The driver had not applied for the relevant parking permit
- The restaurant/cafe service was slow
- The driver's exam/lecture went over time
- The permit had fallen out of sight
- The sign was confusing
- The driver did not know that parking restrictions applied
- The driver was only there for a few minutes
- The driver was not familiar with Busselton/Dunsborough parking requirements
