Advertisement Definition

“Advertisement” means any word, letter, model, sign, placard, board, notice, device or representation, whether illuminated or not, in the nature of, and employed wholly or partly for the purposes of, advertisement, announcement or direction, and includes any hoarding or similar structure used, or adapted for use, for the display of advertisements.

Development Approval Requirements

All advertisement signage on private land requires the approval of the City prior to erection/installation, however the Local Planning Scheme ‘Schedule 10 – Exempted Advertisements’ outlined below provide a number of advertisements located on privately owned land which are exempt from requiring development approval.

Other Approval Requirements

Depending on the proposed advertising signage, an application for building permit may also be required prior to the erection/installation of a sign. Please contact Building Services directly on 9781 1732 to confirm if building approval will be required for a particular advertising signage.
